

15TH September 2016

Dear Parent/Carer

YEAR 7 PILGRIMAGE TO CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL

As a part of the Catholic Life of the school we aim to deepen the students understanding of the faith and its Catholic values. This year all Year 7's will be taken on Pilgrimage to Canterbury Cathedral, the place where Cardinal Pole is buried. The retreat will allow the students time to get to know their form, go deeper into prayer and will partake in a tour of the Cathedral.

Details of the trip:

- Venue: Canterbury Cathedral, Kent
- Date(s): Friday 30th September 2016
- Time: Leaving school 7:30am return to school 3:45pm approx
- Travel arrangements: Coaches
- Cost: Actual cost of trip is £17.00. However a donation of only £5.00 is requested.
- Meals: Packed lunch is required as students will be unable to buy food. Those on free school meals will have a packed lunch provided.
- Clothing: School uniform to be worn
- Special Clothing: Sun hat, something warm if the weather is cooler, waterproof.

Please be assured that the students will be accompanied on the retreat at all times, if there are any concerns regarding the trip, please feel free to contact me on the above number.

Please Note: No child will be allowed to attend the Pilgrimage without a completed reply slip. This is a whole of Year Pilgrimage all students are required to participate.

Please complete the form and submit to the students form teacher by Monday 26th September 2016.

Yours faithfully

James Ryan
