Dear Parent/Carer,

Spoken Word Showcase Event - Wednesday 9th April 2014

We are writing to congratulate your child for their devotion and talent in Spoken Word Poetry Programme which our school is running along five other London schools. We also want to inform you of an exciting community event that you may enjoy.

Your child has been selected to participate in a fantastic poetry evening where they will be showcasing his poetry. The event takes place here in the school on Wednesday 9th April 2014 from 5pm – 7pm. The young poets have been working hard throughout the year, developing their skills and have performed in the Houses of Parliament, Lammas Secondary School, Rich Mix and Keats House as well as having our own in house showcase last half term.

We also would like to inform you that our Resident Poet, Raymond Antrobus, is working in collaboration with the English department to compile and anthology of pupils creative writing which we hope to publish in the summer term. In addition Mr Antrobus has been building up the profile of Cardinal Pole Poets with upcoming opportunities for them to write for TFL (London Underground) and perform at the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park this June. We sincerely believe we have some of the most talented young poets in East London. Guest poets are Joelle Taylor and Musa Okwonga. Please come and see them in action on Wednesday 9th April 2014.

Although tickets will be available on the night, places are limited so you are advised to purchase your tickets in advance. You can do so by completing the slip below.

Tickets Cost: £1 Students £2 Adults

The money raised will go towards creating the end of year Cardinal Pole Poetry Anthology. We look forward to seeing you there.
