Year Group	YR 7	YR 8	YR 9	YR 10	YR11
RSE Content	Media portrayals of relationships and gender roles Features of a healthy relationship Different kinds of families in our society Features of a healthy family. Different kinds of marriage and what the law says What diversity looks like in the sexual spectrum How the UK promotes equality and diversity	The importance of stable and healthy relationships Things that can damage a stable relationship Getting support with an unhealthy relationship What is stereotyping and how it can be harmful Stereotypes on the internet and social media Promoting equal opportunities for all Homophobia and the forms it takes Racism and how we can challenge it Sexism and attitudes towards women The rule of law and equality Promoting tolerance in our community and society	Communicate effectively within relationships Why trust is important in a relationship What is consent and why it is important The risks of unprotected sex What forms of contraception are available Unplanned pregnancy The impact of sharing sexual images without consent Practising mutual respect and tolerance	Keeping my relationship healthy Adapting to change in relationships Support for relationships The effect of drugs and alcohol and sex The impact of media on sex expectations Getting credible information about STIs Challenging sexual harassment Consequences of sexual harassment and support The risks associated with online relationships Developing sexuality The Equality Act and promoting inclusion Challenging discrimination	Consequence of unprotected sex Options for an unplanned pregnancy Lifestyle choices and pregnancy Marriage and the law Adoption, Fostering and The Law Religion and relationships Gender Identity