Dear Parent/Carer,

EXAM AND DROP DOWN DAYS

The public examinations are upon us, and we are extremely proud of how Year 11 students have conducted themselves this week. We thank you for your support during this stressful and important time, in both helping students to revise and prepare, and in ensuring students are able to cope with four demanding weeks of examinations.

Please see below the details of when Year 11 students will be dismissed on each day for the next three weeks. The extra time at home is provided to allow students to rest and recover, as well as prepare for examinations the next day.

- 16th May: Students dismissed at the end of their Chemistry exam at around 10.30am unless they study French, Drama or PE, in which case they will be dismissed at 13.35pm
