

PARENT FORUM 09 12 22

Welcome!

Final meeting for this half term. We have reached the end of assessment point 1 week with an early finish today after the exams.

End of term parent letter goes out today.

Building works taking place at present in the school, these should be finished by end of term. This is for improvement to the playground including 3 canopies being put in place across the playground to provide more shelter/cover during the inclement weather, a new basketball area and a new catering pod which will be fully operational in the New Year.

Next week we have our Year 7 Carol Service at St Dominic's RC Church on Tuesday 13th December at 1.30pm, if you are a year 7 parent, please join us!

Christmas Rewards activities next week: Food bank collections and clothes bank collections. Christmas Jumper day on Wednesday 14th. Non-uniform days are not encouraged due to peer pressure that causes anxiety for students. Instead we have cultural dress days and Christmas jumper days, these ideas are all driven by the School Council. Christmas lunch takes place next Wednesday for all students which will be fully funded by the school for every student.

Attendance: We are back to pre-pandemic levels, Cardinal Pole is the second highest in Hackney.

Parent 1: Thanks to you Mr Hall and all your staff, my ParentPay issue got resolved very quickly, thank you for all your support.

Parent 2: Thanks for your support to Year 12 HOY and Mr Dix.

Parent 3: Thanks to all for supporting my child during AP1.

Parent 4: Thank you for the work the school puts in and wish you a lovely Christmas. Lots of other secondary schools do not have access to the headteacher with this level of engagement.

Parent 5: Thank you for all you do we appreciate all the support.

Thank you for all your good messages, these will be passed onto our colleagues. The HOY forums will be coming back in the New Year in a different format and students will be receiving their AP1 results in the New Year also.

Wish you a good Christmas, Happy New Year!

Thank you.
